STATE OF INDIANA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
INDIANAPOLIS

Executive Order

PROCLAMATION

To All To Whom These Presents May Come, Greeting:

WHEREAS, methamphetamine poses a great danger to all Hoosiers; and

WHEREAS, in 2005, Governor Daniels appointed the Meth Free Indiana Coalition to develop a strategic plan to address the dangerous effects of methamphetamine; and

WHEREAS, the use of methamphetamine continues to be a domestic and international concern; and

WHEREAS, we applaud the continued efforts of state and local law enforcement agencies in the reduction of clan meth labs; and

WHEREAS, educating Hoosiers about the damaging effects of methamphetamine abuse on individuals, families and Indiana communities is at the heart of the National Drug Control Strategy; and

WHEREAS, a day designed to highlight the statewide efforts to increase awareness and decrease demand of this highly addictive and dangerous drug will reach both potential and current methamphetamine users with a message of prevention; and

WHEREAS, reduction of methamphetamine production and prevention is a top priority at every level of local, state and federal government; and

WHEREAS, the United States Department of Justice and President George W. Bush have proclaimed November 30, 2006, National Methamphetamine Awareness Day;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr., Governor of the State of Indiana, do hereby proclaim November 30, 2006 as in the State of Indiana, and invite all citizens to duly note this occasion.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Indiana at the Capitol in Indianapolis on this 22nd day of September, 2006.

BY THE GOVERNOR:

Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr.
Governor of Indiana
