MITCHELL E. DANIELS, JR.

GOVERNOR OF INDIANA

To all who shall see these presents, Greetings:

WHEREAS, Hoosier industries have opportunities to reduce both the use of harmful materials, including toxic materials, and the generation of environmental wastes and pollutants through changes in production technologies, material selections and operations; and

WHEREAS, such changes offer industry savings through reduced costs in the areas of production, regulatory compliance, liability and insurance, and contribute to technological innovation and industrial competitiveness; and

WHEREAS, pollution prevention initiatives applied at the point of production provide the most reliable and effective form of environmental, public and occupational health protection; and

WHEREAS, forums such as Indiana's Partners for Pollution Prevention can provide businesses with guidance to overcome barriers that inhibit the adoption of pollution prevention practices; and

WHEREAS, Indiana supports the prevention of pollution by industries across our great state with the Governor's Awards for Environmental Excellence in Pollution Prevention;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr., Governor of the State of Indiana, do hereby proclaim September 17-23, 2007 as in the State of Indiana, and invite all citizens to duly note this occasion.

POLLUTION PREVENTION WEEK

In Testimony Whereof, I hereto set my hand and cause to be affixed the Great Seal of State. Done at the City of Indianapolis, this 18th day of July in the year of our Lord 2007 and of the Independence of the United States 231.

BY THE GOVERNOR: M E Daniels, Jr.
