

STATE OF INDIANA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
INDIANAPOLIS

Executive Order

PROCLAMATION

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY COME, GREETINGS:

- WHEREAS, Hoosier industries have opportunities to reduce both the use of harmful materials, including toxic materials, and the generation of environmental wastes and pollutants through changes in production technologies, material selections and operations; and
- WHEREAS, such changes offer industry savings through reduced costs in the areas of production, regulatory compliance, liability and insurance and contribute to technological innovation and industrial competitiveness; and
- WHEREAS, pollution prevention initiatives applied at the point of production provide the most reliable and effective form of environmental, public and occupational health protection; and
- WHEREAS, forums such as Indiana's Partners for Pollution Prevention can provide businesses with guidance to overcome barriers that inhibit the adoption of pollution prevention practices; and
- WHEREAS, Indiana industry and IDEM can work together to ensure that thoughtful environmental action can strengthen both the economy and the environment;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Eric J. Holcomb, Governor of the State of Indiana, do hereby proclaim September 17-23, 2023 as in the State of Indiana, and invite all citizens to duly note this occasion.

POLLUTION PREVENTION WEEK

In Testimony Whereof, I hereto set my hand and cause to be affixed the Great Seal of State. Done at the City of Indianapolis, this 17th day of August the year of our Lord 2023 and of the Independence of the United States 248.

BY THE GOVERNOR:

Eric Holcomb
