
All the data from the renaming software will also show up in the table once the tables are linked. You will be able to click on a point and the scanned tie card PDF file will pop up.

Document created July 13, 2005