I am a witness. Lawyers in a case ask me questions about something I saw, heard, did, or know a lot about (expert witness). Sometimes even the jurors will write down questions for the judge to ask me. I promise to tell the truth, and I must keep that promise. My honest answers to questions in court or some other kind of hearing are very important.