ENGROSSED
HOUSE BILL No. 1576

A BILL FOR AN ACT concerning family law and juvenile law.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1999] (a) As used in this SECTION, "committee" refers to the Indiana youth development charter committee of the state human resources investment council established by this SECTION.

(b) As used in this SECTION, "youth" means an individual less than nineteen (19) years of age.

(c) The Indiana youth development charter committee of the state human resources investment council is established.

(d) The committee consists of the following members:

(1) Two (2) individuals appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The individuals appointed under this subdivision may not be members of the same political party.

(2) Two (2) individuals appointed by the president pro tempore of the senate. The individuals appointed under this subdivision may not be members of the same political party.

(3) Six (6) individuals appointed by the governor who are representatives of nonprofit organizations that:

(A) have a statewide presence; and

C o p y

(B) provide:
(i) development;
(ii) prevention; or
(iii) intervention;
services to youths.
(4) Two (2) individuals who are members of the state human resources investment council representing business and industry, to be appointed by the chairperson of the state human resources investment council.
(5) Two (2) individuals who are members of the state human resources investment council representing labor, community organizations, and special populations, to be appointed by the chairperson of the state human resources investment council.
(6) Two (2) individuals who are members of the state human resources investment council representing education and local government, to be appointed by the chairperson of the state human resources investment council.
(7) Two (2) individuals who are youths appointed by the Indiana commission on community services and volunteerism established by executive order 97-11.
(8) One (1) individual appointed by the governor who is the parent of a school age child and who does not represent any of the organizations set forth in subdivision (3), (4), (5), or (6).
(9) Additional individuals as determined necessary by the committee's chairperson to complete the committee's work.
(10) The secretary of family and social services or the secretary's designee.
(11) The commissioner of the department of correction or the commissioner's designee.
The committee members described in subdivisions (9), (10), and (11) are nonvoting members of the committee. The appointing authority shall make the appointments required by this subsection before August 15, 1999. The appointing authority shall fill any vacancy in these positions within forty-five (45) days. If an appointed member is unable to fulfill the appointed member's commitment to the committee or when a vacancy occurs on the committee for any reason, the appointing authority may appoint a qualified person to fill the remainder of the vacating member's unexpired term.

(e) The governor shall appoint a member of the committee to serve as chairperson of the committee. The member serves as chairperson at the pleasure of the governor.
