Work Based Learning

Career and Technical Education recognizes that classroom learning provides only part of the content knowledge and skills development students need for success in college, career, and life. By creating opportunities to learn in the workplace, schools can help students develop and refine the workplace competencies needed to enter and succeed in a chosen career, adjust to the employment environment, and advance along the career pathway of their choice.

- Indiana K-12 Work-Based Learning Manual

Resources

- Teen Work Hour Restrictions
- What is Work Based Learning?