STATE OF INDIANA	)	MARION CIRCUIT COURT
	)
	)
COUNTY OF MARION	)
	)
In Re Local Court Rules	)

Notice of Proposed New Local Rule on Redocket Fees, Finding Good Cause to Deviate from the Schedule for Amending Local Court Rules, and Requesting Comments

The Judge of the Marion Circuit Court and the Judges of the Marion Small Claims Courts, pursuant to Ind. Code §33-34-3-6 and Trial Rule 81, hereby gives notice of adding a proposed new rule on Redocket Fees to the Marion County Local Small Claims Rules at LR49-SC11-708; and, pursuant to Trial Rule 81(D) find that good cause exists to deviate from the schedule for the publishing of local rules. Accordingly, the Courts issue the following proposed new rule to the Marion County Local Small Claims Rules and ask for comment from the bar and the public. The new rule will be effective on September 1, 2020.

Comments to the proposed new Local Rule will be received through Noon on August 15, 2020. Comments should be e-mailed to Marion Circuit Court, c/o Lena Sanders, at Lena.Sanders@indy.gov or mailed to:

Lena Sanders
Administrative Special Counsel
Marion County Circuit Court
200 East Washington St., W506
Indianapolis, IN 46204

All of the above is so ORDERED this 16th day of July, 2020.

Sheryl Lynch

Judge Sheryl Lynch
Marion Circuit Court

* Original signature on file with the Court.

LR49-SC11-708 Redocket Fees

A. Redocket defined

When a case has been decided, the file shall be assigned a disposition date pursuant to Administrative Rule 7 of the Indiana Supreme Court and maintained under the original case number in a location apart from pending files. In the event a decided case is redocketed for reconsideration by the court after the initial entry of judgment that seeks enforcement or modification of the judgment, the disposition date shall be deleted from the file and the case file returned to the pending cases in sequence with the case number originally assigned. A disposition date shall be reassigned at the time the case returns to a decided status.

B. Application of Redocket Fee

A redocket fee pursuant to Indiana Code 33-34-8-1(a)(5), shall be applied to a case that has an initial entry of judgment that seeks enforcement or modification of the judgment.

C. Judicial discretion to waive or apply the fee

It is within the discretion of the Judge of the Marion County Small Claims Court to waive or apply the redocket fee.

(Rule to be effective on September1, 2020)