

YEAR in REVIEW

Healthy Rivers Initiative

The Healthy Rivers Initiative is a partnership of resource agencies and organizations who are working with willing landowners to permanently protect nearly 70,000 acres located in the floodplains of the Wabash River, Sugar Creek, and Muscatatuck River.

IN 2018

1,193
NEW ACRES
PURCHASED

745

ACRES OF WETLANDS
PROTECTED THROUGH
PERMANENT NRCS EASEMENTS

SINCE
JUNE 2010

37,673
ACRES
PERMANENTLY PROTECTED

16,361
NEW ACRES
PURCHASED

6,100
ACRES OF WETLANDS
PROTECTED THROUGH
PERMANENT NRCS EASEMENTS
ON PRIVATE LAND

15,212
EXISTING ACRES
OWNED BY DNR

HealthyRivers.IN.gov

OUR PARTNERS

CENTRAL INDIANA
LAND TRUST