

Goose Creek Game Bird Area

Benton County, Indiana

Goose Creek Game Bird Area is a 375-acre property. It was purchased by the Division of Fish & Wildlife in 2015 using a combination of funding sources, with land bank being the most significant. The site is predominantly grass with multiple streams, some agricultural ground, and a small, forested area. Goose Creek is broken up into three hunting units. The designated hunting area is outlined on the map.

Goose Creek Game Bird Area is open to the public from January through September. Fishing, hiking, birding, shed hunting, and foraging for nuts, berries, and mushrooms is allowed. No other plant materials can be removed without proper DNR permits. Dogs are not allowed at any time unless being used by registered hunters in the pursuit of game. All hunting efforts are awarded through preseason drawings managed by Willow Slough FWA.
