
2023 Put and Take Pheasant Hunts

The Indiana Division of Fish & Wildlife Put and Take Pheasant Hunts begin each year on the Saturday before Thanksgiving and conclude the Sunday after Thanksgiving, running for nine consecutive days. For 2023, the dates are Saturday, Nov. 18 through Sunday, Nov. 26. Online registration begins each year on the second Wednesday in September at 7 a.m. ET. Fish & Wildlife areas participating in the Put and Take Pheasant Hunts are Atterbury, Glendale, Pigeon River, J.E. Roush Lake, Tri-County, Willow Slough, and Winamac.

Properties participating in 2023 Put and Take Pheasant Hunts are managed separately and may each have unique restrictions. Please abide by the rules and regulations for the property on which you are hunting.

Reserve a Hunt:

Put and Take Pheasant Hunts are available by reservation only. Reservations will be available for purchase through the Indiana Division of Fish & Wildlife online sales system starting Sept. 13, 2023 at 7 a.m. ET. Sales will remain open until all reservations are sold or the Put and Take Pheasant Hunts end. Price of admission is $30 per reservation, and there is no limit to how many reservations may be purchased. Each reservation admits one hunter and is sold for a specific date, property, and field location. Reservations are transferable and can be gifted but are not refundable. A person must possess a valid hunting license and game bird habitat stamp before purchasing a reservation.

Restrictions:

- Reservation and check-in is required. (Check-in time varies by property. See table below.)
- Only pheasants may be harvested during put and take hunts.
- Hunters and dogs must stay out of the field until 9 a.m.
- Hunters must follow the daily bag limit for pheasants (Bag limits vary by property. See table below.)
- One or more articles of hunter orange must be worn by each hunter while in the field.
- Park in designated areas only.
- Harvested pheasants must have head and head plumage attached while in transport.

Allowed Equipment:

- 12-, 16- or 20-gauge shotguns loaded with 4 to 6 size shot are recommended; however, other shotgun gauges and shot sizes are allowed.
- Non-toxic shot is not required for Put and Take Pheasant Hunts.

Hunt Information:

On the day of your reserved hunt, you must claim your reservation by checking in at the property office during the time window listed below. Each hunter must check in prior to hunting. Visit the Fish & Wildlife Properties Webpage to find property-specific maps and information.

Pheasant hunters and hunting dogs must stay out of the field until 9 a.m. local time and must only hunt in their reserved unit until 2 p.m. After 2 p.m., paid pheasant hunters may hunt any unit on the property.

Daily bag limit is two pheasants per hunter. Some properties are rooster only. See the table below to determine the bag limit for each property. Only pheasants may be harvested during the Put and Take hunt. No other game may be harvested.
