

Staying in this cabin is a unique experience. On no other state forest property can one rent an old log cabin and step back 130 years to a time before electricity and modern conveniences. If you are expecting modern facilities, you'd better look into a motel; but if you want a rustic experience in the middle of the forest, Draper Cabin can deliver. You'll find the basics here—a roof over your head and a floor under your feet, an outdoor vault toilet, and a fireplace for warmth and cooking. (Firewood may be gathered from dead wood found in the forest.) No beds, no furniture, no running water, no towels or linen; but a dry place to spend the night in a quiet, remote setting.

Due to the popularity and heavy use of DRAPER CABIN, it has been necessary to repair, maintain, and secure the cabin and limit the number of cabin occupants to 14 so as not to overburden the cabin and surrounding area.

Minimum rental on a weekend is for two nights. On weekends with holidays connected to them, the minimum rental period is for three nights. Sunday and Monday nights cannot be reserved unless also rented for prior Friday and Saturday.
