BMV Announces Pendleton Branch Consolidation

INDIANAPOLIS—Commissioner of the Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles Peter L. Lacy announced today he approved the proposal to consolidate the Pendleton branch into the Anderson branch. The last day of operation for Pendleton is Saturday, Oct. 30, 2021.

“It is always hard to make a decision to consolidate a branch, especially when residents show a passion for the branch like the Pendleton community has over the past couple weeks,” said Commissioner Lacy. “The BMV is committed to providing options for completing transactions; we continue to make investments both in our branches and out-of-branch options to enhance the experience for our customers.”

The recently remodeled Anderson branch is located nine miles from the Pendleton branch. Residents choosing to use the Anderson branch will also have access to a 24-hour BMV Connect kiosk. BMV Connect gives Hoosiers the option to visit a BMV branch to complete over a dozen routine transactions day or night. The McCordsville, Alexandria, and Noblesville branches are each located within 18 miles or less of the Pendleton branch.
