- II. Approval of August 19, 2022, Meeting Minutes
The August 19, 2022, meeting minutes were presented. Members of the committee approved the meeting minutes.
- III. Certification Report
Reilly Sommers reported that since the last committee meeting, in August of 2022, IOCS has issued 7 certifications to the following counties: Washington, Henry, Johnson, Scott, Monroe, and both Lake County A&D programs. The Martin County program closed. The total number of certified programs is 49, with zero in the planning stages.
- IV. Education Subcommittee Report
Alexis Stogdill reported that Staff Orientation was held on April 5, 2023, with 37 people successfully completing. Alexis reported the Justice Services Conference registration is open. This year the conference will be three days with more than 40 session topics. Additionally, the education division is offering on average two free webinars per month of continuing education. Topics and registration may be found by visiting the Justice Services Calendar.
- V. Education Curricula Review
Judge Martin opened committee discussions on two education curricula that have been submitted to CADPAC for review; Early Intervention Program (EIP) submitted by Washington County Court Alcohol & Drug Program and Get SMARTER submitted by Tippecanoe County Court Services.

Alexis Stogdill reported that the Education Subcommittee met virtually on March 9, 2023, to review the curricula. Alexis reported the subcommittee's review/recommendation of both curricula to the committee.

Following committee discussion, the committee unanimously approved the Get SMARTER curriculum.

The committee agreed there were a few elements missing from the EIP curriculum as well as noted a few legal concerns. The committee denied the EIP curricula by a unanimous vote.
