

The screenshot shows the U.S. Forest Service website. At the top left are the USDA and U.S. Forest Service logos with the tagline "Caring for the land and serving people". To the right is the text "Eastern Region State and Private Forestry" and a search bar. Below the header is a navigation menu with "Home", "Topics", "Resources and Publications", "About", and "Working With Us". Social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, Email, and a share icon are on the right. The breadcrumb trail reads "HOME >> WORKING WITH US >> GRANTS >> LANDSCAPE SCALE RESTORATION GRANTS". A left sidebar titled "Working with Us" lists "Grants", "State Forestry Agencies", "Jobs & Volunteering", "Civil Rights", and "OneUSDA Agencies". The main content area features the heading "Landscape Scale Restoration Grants" followed by a paragraph explaining the program's purpose. Below this are links for "National LSR Project Database" and "National LSR Interactive Web Map Viewer". The primary heading is "FY 2021 Landscape Scale Restoration (LSR) Request for Applications across the Northeast and Midwest", followed by a sub-heading "Regional Guidance and Forms" and a bulleted list of resources.

Landscape Scale Restoration Grants

The purpose of the Landscape Scale Restoration (LSR) competitive grant program is to encourage collaborative, science-based restoration of priority forest landscapes, leverage public and private resources, and support priorities identified in State Forest Action Plans. The LSR request for applications comes out once per year.
