I am looking to grow into a position where I can use my strengths and skills to foster a positive working relationship and culture with Staff, Client and Incarcerated Individuals through planning, leadership and direction while executing strong financial numbers and focusing on key performance indicators.

EXPERIENCE

OCTOBER 2018 – CURRENT

AREA GENERAL MANAGER, ARAMARK CORRECTIONAL SERVICES

Daily responsibilities include but are not limited to staff and offender accountability, staff and offender training & development, financial accounting, sales forecasting, planning & execution, staff recruitment & retention and client relations.

DECEMBER 2003 – SEPTEMBER 2018

GENERAL MANAGING PARTNER, RUBY TUESDAY RESTAURANTS

During my tenure with Ruby Tuesday, I was able to succeed in several different rolls. I began as an hourly manager and worked my way to General Managing Partner. I was able to open three new locations, develop over ten hourly staff into salaried managers and operate five different locations.

EDUCATION

MAY 2000

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE, WABASH COLLEGE, CRAWFORDSVILLE, IN

While pursuing my undergraduate degree in Political Science with minors in International History & French, I was a two-sport athlete, an officer in Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity, a photographer for the yearbook and worked in the campus grounds department.

JUNE 1996

HONORS DIPLOMA, SHAKER HEIGHTS HIGH SCHOOL, SHAKER HEIGHTS, OHIO

SKILLS

- Strong & Positive Workplace Culture
- Passion for Staff Development
- Strong Personal Accountability
- Ability to Develop Budgets & Plans
- Strong Leadership Skills
- Willing to do Whatever is Needed to Succeed

ACTIVITIES

Outside of work, I enjoy directing my time and strengths towards my family. I love to support my wife and children; I have been a coach for my daughter's travel softball team and am currently coach for my son's rugby team. With additional free time I enjoy refurbishing and building custom furniture and riding my motorcycle.
