The Indiana Gaming Commission ("Commission") adopts the following resolution pursuant to the authority granted to it under IC 4-33 and pursuant to 68 IAC 1-2-6.

The following factors have been considered by the Commission:

1. Penn National Gaming, Inc. ("Penn National") and its wholly owned subsidiary, Thoroughbred Acquisition Corp. ("Thoroughbred"), have entered into an agreement and plan of merger with Argosy Gaming Company ("Argosy"). Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, Thoroughbred will merge with and into Argosy, and Argosy shall continue as the surviving corporation. Upon completion of the merger, Argosy shall become a wholly owned subsidiary of Penn National.
2. Indiana Gaming Company, L.P., a wholly owned subsidiary of Argosy, is the current holder of the license to own and manage a riverboat gambling operation in Lawrenceburg, Indiana. After closing, Indiana Gaming Company, L.P will continue to hold the Indiana owner's license.
3. To effectuate the merger, Penn National will acquire all of Argosy's outstanding common stock at a price of $47 per share. Penn National will also acquire all outstanding options to purchase Argosy common stock. Penn National has indicated and established to the Commission's satisfaction that it has sufficient funds at its disposal to finance this merger.
4. The Commission has received a confidential financial analysis of the transaction from Dr. Charlene Sullivan who recommends approval of Penn National's financing package and of the merger.
5. Penn National and Argosy have addressed the Commission concerning this merger.
6. The City of Lawrenceburg, Indiana, through its Mayor, the Honorable William E. Cunningham, has expressed its strong support for the merger.
