

ORDER 2009-35

AN ORDER DENYING HANK TURNER'S APPLICATION FOR OCCUPATIONAL LICENSE

The Commission has considered the following factors:

On October 22, 2008, Hank Turner applied for a level 3 occupational license to work as a deckhand at Argosy Casino. He did not disclose several felony and misdemeanor arrests and/or charges in his application for occupational license. On October 22, 2008, Mr. Turner was issued a temporary occupational license. After investigating his application for occupational license and providing him an opportunity to remedy his failure to disclose, Commission staff determined that Mr. Turner was not suitable for licensure. On February 18, 2009, Commission staff revoked Mr. Turner's temporary license and notified him that his application would be denied at this Commission meeting unless he withdrew his application or corrected his failure to disclose. He did not withdraw his application and did not correct his failure to disclose.

Based on the foregoing, the Commission hereby DENIES Hank Turner's Application for Permanent Occupational License.

IT IS SO ORDERED THIS THE 19th OF MARCH, 2009.
