Note: Many of the probate records are stored in the Elkhart County Courthouse as packets with no internal organization. These packets (also called “drawers” or “vaults”) are unindexed and thus are difficult to search. The Elkhart County Genealogical Society has indexed the microfilm; however their reel numbering scheme differs from the organization used by the Indiana State Library. In order to use their index, you must follow these steps:

1. Find the record of interest in the Elkhart County Genealogical Society index. Note the Film #.
2. Find that Film # on the Film Identification page. Note the Library #.
3. The Library # is the same as the GSU # in the table below.
