Michigan City Transit Development District Released for Public Review

Hybrid in-person and virtual public engagement session to present the district set for June 23rd.

CROWN POINT, IN (June 14, 2021) – The Northwest Indiana Regional Development Authority (RDA) has released the draft Transit Development District (TDD) boundaries for the Michigan City South Shore station. Details are available for review and comment on the RDA’s new TDD-specific Web site at <https://www.nwitdd.com/michigan-city>

Hard copies of the district maps and their development process will also be available for viewing and comment at Michigan City City Hall.

The RDA will hold a hybrid in-person and virtual public engagement session on Wednesday, June 23rd at 6:00 p.m. to present the Transit Development District to the public. The in-person event will be held in the council chambers at Michigan City City Hall. Masks and social distancing will not be required but are encouraged.

This event will be simulcast on Zoom at <https://mksk.zoom.us/j/83267181448> and the RDA’s Facebook page, facebook.com/rdacatalyst. Virtual participants will be able to submit written questions during the event that will be answered in the Q&A portion of the presentation. Written questions will also be taken from in-person attendees.

About the Northwest Indiana Regional Development Authority

Established in 2006 through a bipartisan effort including former Governor Mitchell E. Daniels, Congressman Peter J. Visclosky, key state legislators, and local elected officials, the RDA is quasi-governmental development entity entrusted to make public investment decisions within a regional framework for supporting catalytic infrastructure projects and inducing private sector investment. Years of successful results have made it a trusted and tested partner for growth in Northwest Indiana. For more information, visit www.nwitdd.com or www.in.gov/rda
