

Governor's Long-Term Employee Reception

April 19, 2022 • 2:30 p.m. • Indiana Statehouse Atrium

Work for Indiana

A message from Governor Holcomb

My fellow Hoosiers,

It is my honor and a pleasure to thank and congratulate you on celebrating your 35th, 40th, 45th, 50th, 55th, and 60th anniversaries working for the great State of Indiana! Your commitment and dedication are truly inspiring.

For many of you celebrating 35 years in 2021, you began your career in 1986—the year when Halley’s Comet flew across the sky and millions of Americans came together in a Hands Across America human chain. Today, we are still connected, and we are still coming together to honor you and your work, day-in and day-out, for the last three-and-half decades, or more.

The world has changed a lot since then, but the commitment, compassion, and dedication that makes State of Indiana employees special remains the same. Today, we’re recognizing 591 employees who marked a milestone workplace anniversary in 2020 or 2021. You’ve given your time and shared your talents with your neighbors and your Hoosier communities for more than 35 years. Two of you are celebrating 60 years of employment!

The services that you provide for the State of Indiana are incredibly important. You are the professionals at our agencies, the nurses at our state hospitals, the officers in our correctional facilities, the engineers and highway technicians, the state troopers, and the social workers. You are the people who make sure that Indiana is a great place to raise families, to work, and to live. So, as a lifelong Hoosier, I thank you.

As the days, months, years, and decades march on, your dedication and commitment will continue to inspire.

As we celebrate these significant milestones in your careers, on behalf of 6.7 million Hoosiers, thank you.

Governor Eric J. Holcomb
