Hi there, I'm Monitor Guy and it's that time of year again when a lot of people get new electronic gadgets.

There are lots of us electronic gadgets out there, such as televisions (like me), computers, DVD players and even gaming systems. If you get a new electronic gadget be sure to not throw your old electronics in the trash. We electronic gadgets have a lot of useful materials in us that can be reused or recycled, such as plastic, aluminum, steel and even the circuit board.

Not only do we have useful materials in us that can be recycled. We also should not go in the trash. The good news is we have places you can recycle your electronic gadgets all over the state!
