Cintas First Aid and Safety Facility in Evansville Earns “STAR” Certification

INDIANAPOLIS (April 12, 2017) – Cintas Corporation Location 383 First Aid & Safety Division of Evansville, Indiana, achieved ‘STAR’ certification in the Indiana Voluntary Protection Program, the state’s elite program for workplace safety and health excellence.

Cintas Corporation Location 383 (Central Region) employs 24 workers, including 16 drivers, who sell and service first aid and safety supplies for businesses in southern Indiana and areas in Kentucky and Illinois.

“The Indiana Department of Labor is very thankful for the commitment and culture of workplace safety and health displayed by the Cintas Corporation,” said Indiana Department of Labor Commissioner Rick J. Ruble. “Cintas continues to expand that culture and reach beyond the OSHA standards to protect their employees. Our agency is proud to award the ‘STAR’ title to Cintas’s Evansville location.”

With the addition of Location 383, 45 of Cintas’s 54 first aid and safety facilities hold VPP STAR certification. Of the facility’s three-year average, Location 383 achieved an impressive 0 percent total case incidence rate (TCIR), surpassing the national industry average TCIR of 1.5 for the same three year average.
