Code § 4-21.5-3-9 to act as an administrative law judge panel (“ALJ panel”), held a personal appearance on October 21, 2021, via Webex, concerning Diann Lynn Randall’s (“Applicant”) application to renew her license as a nurse. She came for the purpose of providing information and answering questions concerning her application to renew her license as a nurse.

The Applicant appeared in person and without counsel.

The ALJ panel, after considering the evidence presented and taking official notice of the file in this matter, issues the following Recommended Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order:

RECOMMENDED FINDINGS OF FACT

2. The Applicant submitted an application to renew her license as a nurse.

4. The Applicant has committed an act for which the applicant may be disciplined.

The Applicant agreed to the terms of probation.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. “The agency may delay issuing a license renewal for up to one hundred twenty (120) days after the renewal date for the purpose of permitting the board to investigate information received by the agency that the applicant for renewal may have committed an act for which the applicant may be disciplined... Upon agreement of the applicant and the board and following a personal appearance by the applicant before the board, renew the license and place the applicant on probation status under IC 25-1-9-9.” Ind. Code § 25-1-5-4(g)(4).

2. The Applicant committed an act for which the applicant may be disciplined.

ORDER

Based upon the foregoing and pursuant to Ind. Code § 25-1-5-4, the Board renews the license of the Applicant on indefinite probation. The following TERMS AND CONDITIONS govern the Applicant’s practice while on probation:

- a. The Applicant’s current home address, mailing address, e-mail address and residential telephone number.
- b. The Applicant’s place of employment, employment telephone number, employment e-mail address and name of supervisor.

3. The Applicant shall provide a copy of all Board orders, including this one, imposing discipline or limiting practice to any nursing employer who shall sign and return a copy of such orders to the Board within ten (10) days of employment or receipt of the Order.

4. The Applicant shall cause the person evaluating her nursing practice to submit quarterly reports to the Board indicating her professional competence, sense of responsibility, work habits, mental attitude and ability to work with others. If Applicant is unemployed while on probation, she will submit a written personal report to the Board.

5. The Applicant shall comply with all statutes and rules regulating the practice of nursing and report any future arrests, instances of substance abuse, work discipline or terminations to the Board immediately in writing.

6. The failure of the Applicant to comply with the terms of this decision may subject her to a show cause hearing and the imposition of further sanctions, including emergency suspension of her license.
