Notice:

Registration for this program reserves a slot in the competition for your school representative to compete for the title of State Champion. In order to compete at the state finals, schools are required to hold a classroom or school competition, with a minimum of 2 students, to identify one school champion. A school champion appointed by the school is not allowed.

If your school is unable to compete, cancellation must be made by January 1, 2013. Please contact Susan Britsch (317) 232-1281 sbritsch@iac.in.gov for more information.

In order to be eligible, students must be enrolled in a state recognized high school and under federal law; participation in state competitions and the National Finals is restricted to U.S. citizens or permanent residents.

The image is a vertical poster for the 2013 School Registration Form. It features a blue background with a light blue outline of the state of Indiana. At the top, the word "Indiana" is written in a large, blue, stylized font. Below this is a logo for "POETRY OUT LOUD NATIONAL RECITATION CONTEST". The logo consists of a microphone icon on the left and the text "POETRY" in yellow, "OUT LOUD" in red, and "NATIONAL RECITATION CONTEST" in white on a black background. At the bottom of the poster is the logo for the Indiana Arts Commission (IAC), which includes a stylized figure and the text "IAC Indiana Arts Commission Connecting People to the Arts". Below the IAC logo are two smaller logos: the National Endowment for the Arts logo with the tagline "A great nation deserves great art." and the Poetry Foundation logo featuring a bird in flight.
