Re: De-obligated funds

Message:

If your organization is in need of funding beyond a grant that you may have received from ICJI, before you abandon your project, please contact your ICJI representative to inquire about de-obligated funding that may be available. There are some instances when grantees do not spend their entire award amount and these de-obligated funds may be redistributed to (eligible) grantees and used for additional projects that meet ICJI project guidelines.
