

Indiana businesses are subject to certain regulatory requirements. This pamphlet contains the actions that should be considered by any business starting, expanding, hiring its first employees, or operating in Indiana.

Organization

Establish the business organization by forming any of the following:

- ⇒ Sole Proprietorship
- ⇒ General Partnership
- ⇒ Limited Partnership
- ⇒ Limited Liability Company
- ⇒ Corporation

If you are unsure what type of business organization is best for you, contact the nearest Small Business Development Center. Regional offices contact: (800) 463-8081 or visit www.ISBDC.ORG

>> Limited Partnerships, Limited Liability Companies, and Corporations must file with the Secretary of State (contact the office regarding forms you need to file). If a business is structured as one of the above and in another state, then it must obtain a Certificate of Authority of a Foreign Corporation through the Secretary of State's office.

Name Registration

>> If the business' name is different than that of the sole proprietor or the partners, the business name must be registered with the respective County Recorder. If the county office does not have the appropriate form, you can acquire one from the State Information Center.

A corporation must file the assumed business name with the Secretary of State and the County Recorder if doing business under a name other than the name on the Articles of Incorporation. Obtain this form from the Secretary of State's Office.

Federal Tax Information

>> Any business having employees will need an Employer Identification Number (EIN) from the Internal Revenue Service. Contact the IRS for Form SS-4, complete it, then call the IRS to have a number assigned. Business owners may also be required to file self employment taxes quarterly. If you have any questions about the EIN or self employment tax requirements, contact the IRS.

State Tax Information

>> File the State of Indiana Business Tax Application (Form BT-1) with the Indiana Department of Revenue to register for sales tax (Retail Merchant's Certificate), withholding tax, corporate tax and other non-property taxes.

Any business selling tangible goods in Indiana will need a Retail Merchant Certificate (application included in BT-1) to buy goods at wholesale prices and collect sales tax on goods sold. The cost is $25, and the certificate remains valid as long as ownership and federal identification number remain the same and sales taxes are filed at scheduled times. Apply on line @ <http://www.in.gov/dor/4337.htm> or contact one of the Indiana Department of Revenue District Offices.

Partnerships (LLP) file an informational tax return (Form IT-65). General Partnerships and Sole Proprietors report their income on individual tax returns. Any questions should be directed to the Department of Revenue.
