

How is foster care funded? The Title IV-E Foster Care Program provides federal funds for foster care or residential care per diem payments and for medical services for children who would have been eligible had they applied at the time the court ordered them removed from their homes.