

Richard J. Rice

Richard J. Rice is President, & CEO of Teachers Credit Union, South Bend, Indiana, a $1.6 billion financial institution and the largest credit union in Indiana. Mr. Rice has been with Teachers Credit Union for more than 30 years, serving as Executive Vice President from December 1980, until appointment as President, July 1987. Mr. Rice also serves in the capacity of Treasurer on the TCU Board of Directors.

Mr. Rice is firmly committed to the organization's mission of being a positive community force and is dedicated to TCU's roots in education. Within the credit union movement, he has served as Chairman of the Members Development Company and is a member of CUNA's Governmental Affairs Committee. In the community, Mr. Rice is a current member of the Memorial Home Care Board of Directors, a member of the Board of Directors of Project Future, Vice Chair of Holy Cross College Board of Trustees and a Board member for WNIT the public broadcasting network. Mr. Rice previously served as the 3rd District Representative to the State Board of Education from 1998-2002. In 2002, Mr. Rice was presented the Distinguished Hoosier Award by former Governor O'Bannon. Mr. Rice is a past Board Chairman of Memorial Health Systems, CONNECT, the Coalition for Educational Successes in St. Joseph County, the United Way campaign of St. Joseph County, and Junior Achievement of Michiana. He is a graduate of Indiana University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in History.