

Mark A Schroeder

Mark A Schroeder is President & CEO of German American Bancorp, Inc., Jasper, Indiana, a $1 billion dollar bank holding company. Mr. Schroeder has been with German American for more than 35 years, serving as President and Chief Operation Officer in 1991, until appointment as President and CEO, in January 1999. Mr. Schroeder also serves on the Board of Directors for German American Bancorp, Inc. and its subsidiaries. He is also a Director of the Bank of Evansville

Mr. Schroeder is firmly committed to the Company's vision of community banking. He serves as a Director for various state and local banking organizations including the Indiana Department of Financial Institutions, Indiana Bankers Associations, and Independent Community Bankers of America. He also serves on the Bankers Advisory Board for the Conference of State Bank Supervisors. In the community, Mr. Schroeder is on the Board of Overseers for St. Meinrad, School of Theology, and serves on the Strategic Steering committee for Memorial Hospital. He is a member of the Jasper Country Club, Jasper Kiwanis Club and St. Mary's Catholic Church. Mr. Schroeder received the State of Indiana CPA High Grade Award in 1994; the Jasper Jaycees Distinguished Service Award in 1995; the Jasper High School Distinguished Alumni Award in 2000; and the Sagamore of the Wabash in 2003. He is a graduate of the University of Evansville with a Bachelor of Science degree in Financial Management and holds a CPA designation.