RE: Corporate contributions

To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept this as are written acknowledgement that Interesting Stuff, Inc has calculated that the time Cindy Lou has participated in the Local Emergency Planning Committee (LEPC), LEPC training and LEPC conferences to be a donation to the Lovely County LEPC.

We are proud to donate what we calculate to be $3,745.00 for the time Cindy spent during the normal business of for Interesting Stuff, Inc to attend HMEP Grant training, to attend WTH Think Map training, and respond to CEC on area hazardous spills.

We believe that Cindy's participation in this community organization is necessary. Interesting Stuff, Inc. supports the efforts of the entire Local Emergency Planning Committee as they strive to plan, prevent, respond and promote awareness in hazardous material safety.

We look forward to be able to accommodate Cindy's participation in the future.

Sincerely,

Mr. Big Wig
President

To Whom It May Concern:

It is our pleasure to donate the auditorium at the Power of Indiana, Inc. building to the Lovely County LEPC for the Hazmat Meeting that was held on May 6, 2010. The value of the room is $150 per day.

It is important to our company for our employee Rachel Dove's participation with the Lovely County Local Emergency Planning Committee (LEPC) and to offer her expertise with chemicals and the utility infrastructure. We offer Rachel's time and commitment as a corporate contribution ($45/hr base).

LEPC Conference - Oct 2009 - $720 (2 days)
WTH Conference - March 2010 - $720 (2 days)
Company Car each trip - 260 miles roundtrip each = 520 @ $.50 = $260
IGMS Grant Training - July 2010 - $360 (1 day)
Company Car - 110 miles roundtrip 110 @ .50 = $55
Michigan Homeland Security Conference - May 2010 - $1060 (3 days)
LEPC Meetings & grant work - $1800 (5 days per grant year)

Rachel also serves on the LEPC and attends meetings every other month in Versailles and uses the company car to attend. We are glad we can participate in this endeavor and will continue to support the Lovely County LEPC in every manner we can.

Total Power of Indiana, Inc corporate contribution to the LEPC = $4,975.00 (October 1, 2009 to September 30, 2010).

Sincerely,

Mr. Power Head
President
