Notice of Public Hearing on Department of Local Government Finance's Performance of Annual Adjustment for 2008 pay 2009 real property taxes in LaPorte County

The Indiana Department of Local Government Finance ("Department") has determined that LaPorte County has not made annual adjustments to assessed valuations required by 50 IAC 21 for 2008 pay 2009 property taxes. By law, when a county fails to make an annual adjustment to assessed valuations, the Department must perform that task for the county.

Notice is hereby given that on Monday, June 1, 2009, at 6:30 p.m. (CDT), in Conference Room 2 of the LaPorte County Complex Annex Building, 809 State Street, LaPorte, Indiana, the Department will hold a public hearing concerning its performance of the annual adjustment on real property.

Using data permitted by 50 IAC 21-12-1, the Department proposes to apply the following adjustment factors to assessed real property values in LaPorte County for 2008 pay 2009 property taxes:

Residential Improved	1.05
Residential Vacant	1.02
Com/Ind Class A	1.07
Com/Ind Class B	1.07
Com/Ind Class C	1.06
Com/Ind Class D	1.03
Com/Ind Class S	1.07

The hearing is open to the public. Anyone interested in participating in the public hearing is encouraged to attend and may speak or submit written statements expressing his concerns. Written comments may be submitted in advance to Brian E. Bailey, General Counsel, Department of Local Government Finance, Indiana Government Center North, 100 N. Senate Ave., Rm. N1058, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204.

Signed this 20th day of May, 2009.

Timothy J. Rushenberg, Commissioner
Department of Local Government Finance
