

Michelle Cain

Michelle Cain graduated from Ball State University in 2004 with a Bachelor's Degree in Wildlife Biology and in 2006 with a Master's Degree in aquatic biology and fisheries management. Since joining the DNR, Michelle served as an assistant fisheries biologist in southern Indiana for five years before taking the position of Wildlife Information Specialist in 2011. As Wildlife Information Specialist, she answers questions from the public on various issues, is in charge of the Division of Fish & Wildlife's social media efforts, engages in public relations, helps manage DFW's website, drafts news releases, and aids in the rule promulgation process. She has been with the DFW for 6 years.

Michelle is happily married and has a one-year-old son who keeps her busy. In her free time she enjoys, fishing, hunting, boating, and being outdoors whenever possible.

