

Join US in the Historic Landmark District of Madison, IN For A Hands-On Preservation Training Workshop

November 4, 5, 6, 2011 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Register at: Ivy Tech CC- Madison www.ivytech.edu/register-now

Sponsored by Historic Madison, Inc.

Enjoy working at St. Michael the Archangel Church (oldest surviving Gothic Church in Indiana) located at 521 E. Third Street and the Sullivan House (smokehouse) at 304 W. Second Street, Madison, IN. Historic properties are owned and operated by Historic Madison, Inc. a non-profit organization dedicated to education, promotion, and assistance in preservation and restoration of historic resources. For additional information contact: Historic Madison, Inc. 812-265-2967. hmi@historicmadisoninc.com

Learn techniques and methods for the repair and maintenance of historic stained glass, dry laid stonework, and decorative plasterwork, while working on a historic structure.

Your instructors are:

Rhonda L. Deeg (Stained Glass Restoration)- resident of Madison and has taught for over 25 years. Historic Preservation Trades Training is her specialty. She is a part-time faculty member of Ivy Tech CC.

Jan and Clint Bush (Masonry Restoration)- resident in KY and has over 15 years in dry stone experience. Certified by Richard Tufnell, master stonemason from UK who co-founded Dry Stone Conservancy.

Terry Wullenweber (Wullenweber & Sons Plastering)- third generation master plasterer. Family owned and operated business, since 1972 in Milan, IN.

. Resident of Madison and has over 30 years in the restoration business.

Will conduct wood shingle roofing workshop during the first weekend of training.

- This is a hands-on training non-credit course, which meets on site for 3 days.
- Register at Ivy Tech CC- Madison at www.ivytech.edu/register-now Click on Register Now.
- HPR5 01K Field Site Experience CRN#20623
- Tuition cost: $250.00
- Tools and equipment provided, but basic hand tools are recommended. Bring your own gloves and safety glasses. Wear appropriate clothing and comfortable shoes/boots for outside weather work.
- Some museum tours will be included in course.
- A full itinerary of work will be provided upon registration.
- Accommodations and dining available in downtown Madison.

Questions? Call R. Deeg
Directions to Madison, IN: Easy to find from
I-65, Scottsburg exit- follow highway 56 east

812.292.6334 or
rdeeg1@ivytech.edu