Falls of the Ohio State Park

Falls of the Ohio State Park was covered by a shallow tropical sea about 387 million years ago. The abundant fossilized remains of the prehistoric sea included 1,404 acres of federally protected National Wildlife Conservation Area, which extends over 30,000 acres. The remains of the creatures from that time were found in the Falls of the Ohio State Park, as well as an auditorium, educational classroom, wildlife observation area, river observation room, and gift shop. An entrance fee is charged for adults and children. The DNR Annual Entrance Permit and Golden Hoosier Passport are sold and accepted at the interpretive center.
