

Annual Commemoration of the 1811 Battle of Tippecanoe Sunday, November 10, 2013

Join us Sunday, November 10, 2013 for the annual commemoration of the 1811 Battle of Tippecanoe. The Tippecanoe County Historical Association (TCHA) in partnership with the Tippecanoe County Parks and Recreation Department and Prophetstown State Park will commemorate the 202nd anniversary of the November 7, 1811 Battle of Tippecanoe.

This year's speakers and activities focus on the Shawnee leader Tecumseh who was killed in October 1813. There will be a full day of activities beginning at 10:00am with living historians and speakers at the Tippecanoe Battlefield site. Then the commemoration will move to the Prophetstown State Park for activities and presentations by Shawnee members in the village beginning at 1:30pm.
