

Miami Indians: The Tradition Continues

at Salamonie!

Call to reserve your session today!
260-468-2127
Pre-registration required

Learn about Indiana's Miami Indian culture, past and present.

September 9, 10 and 11, 2013

Monday:

- 12 p.m. Carry-in. Bring table service, drink, and a dish to share. Main dish provided, $1 donation.
Program: Indiana's Miami Indian and Upper Wabash area History with Miami Nation of Indians' vice-chief John Dunnigan
- 3 p.m. Beading session: Learn the traditional craft of beading with Holly Meyers.
Limited session: Call now to reserve your spot!
- 3:30 p.m. Cattail Cordage Making: with Tony Wells. Try it!
- 7 p.m. Live Bird Folklore: Meet live birds of prey and hear the Native Lore that surrounds them.

Tuesday:

- 10 a.m. Finger Weaving session: with Clyde Hayslett.
Limited session: Call now to reserve your spot!
- 11 a.m. Hand Drum with Lynn Young. Make a traditional hand drum. Pre-payment required.
Limited session: Call now to reserve your spot!
- 11:30 a.m. Flint Napping: demonstration with Tony Wells
- 3 p.m. Fry Bread! with Sarah Siders
- 7 p.m. Miami Nation of Indiana Drummers and Singers.

Wednesday:

- 9 a.m. Native Flute: Learn about the traditional flute with Christine Boywer
- 10 a.m. Native Plants: Learn about edible, medicinal and utilitarian native plants with Dani Tippman
- 12:30 p.m. Carry-in. Bring table service, drink, and a dish to pass. Main dish provided, $1 donation.
- 2:30 p.m. Miami Language session. Listen to and learn Miami language with Sarah Siders.
- 7 p.m. Helen Frost, author of the newly released young adult historical fiction SALT A Story of Friend-ship in a Time of War. Book signing; copies available for purchase at event.

This 3-day program is for anyone interested in Miami Indian Tradition. Drive in daily or reserve your campsite by calling (866) 622-6746, or visit www.camp.IN.gov. Property gate fees apply.

Basic info: Some sessions are limited. $3 program fee covers all events unless otherwise noted. Please plan to bring table service to each carry-in, and a prepared dish to share. Donations are accepted.

Upper Wabash Interpretive Services
3691 S. New Holland Road, Andrews, IN 46702
260-468-2127