50th Anniversary Celebration of the Flight of Gemini 111 "Molly Brown"
March 21st - 23rd

21st
9:00 to 3:00 Gus Grissom Boyhood home 715 West Grissom Ave Mitchell
10:30 to 3:00 Hoosier Hill Ham Club Learn the valuable service that Ham Radio Operators perform while speaking to people all over the world. Trailer outside the Memorial
10:30 Guided Tour of the Memorial
11:00 to 12:30 Gus’s Personal items on display (those not normally seen) Memorial
1:45 Items Astronauts smuggled in Space, taste some of the foods that were tried in space and find out why some are still used and some have been discontinued. Lakeview Activity Center
3:00-3:15 Watch the lift off of the Molly Brown and find out what experiments were carried out on the flight Lakeview Activity Center

22nd
11:30 Guided Tour of the Memorial
12:30-2:20 More of Gus’s personal items on Display Memorial
12:30 Watch the Lift off of the Molly Brown and Space Food tasting Auditorium in the Lakeview Activity Center
12:00 to 3:00 Gus Grissom Boyhood home 715 West Grissom Ave Mitchell

23rd Actual Launch Date
9:00 to 3:00 Gus Grissom Boyhood home 715 West Grissom Ave Mitchell
10:30 Guided tour of the Memorial
11:30-3:30 Space Crafts at the Lakeview Activity Center
12:30 Watch the Lift off of the Molly Brown Lakeview Activity Center
6:30pm Ray Boomhower Author of Gus Grissom-The Lost Astronaut speaks about Gus—Immediately following there will be a reception and book signing if you have the Grissom Book bring it and have it signed by the Author Lakeview Room at Spring Mill Inn
Bring your family to the Lakeview Activity Center for Space Games All three Days