

How much do you know about Indiana DNR's Division of Water?

This year in addition to the coloring contest, it was decided to add an extra challenge to see what you may or may not know about the Division of Water. Start at our main webpage (<http://www.in.gov/dnr/water>) and see how many questions you can find the answer to. We hope that you have fun and find some new fun facts that you may not have known before.

1. What is an established floodway? _____
2. Do you have to be licensed to drill a well? _____
3. What is the Great Lakes Council? _____
4. What does prospecting mean? _____
5. Which section within the Division of Water provides technical guidance and serves as a liaison between the DNR and three of the State's River Basins? _____
6. What year did the Water Resource Management Act become enacted? _____
7. How many regulatory programs are administered by the Division of Water? _____
8. What makes a dam exempt from the state's authority? _____
9. What is the definition of "floodway"? _____
10. What does "beach nourishment" mean? _____
11. Prior to July 1, 2011, an individual can obtain a water well pump installer license from the IDNR without taking a competency exam if they meet what qualifications? _____
12. Public notice must be provided for which statutes? _____
13. What does "dewatering mean"? _____
14. What does "maximum breach inundation area" mean? _____
15. What does the hazard classification of a dam mean? _____
16. Which regulated great lake influences the whole Great Lakes System? _____
17. What is the definition of a floodplain and the fringe? _____
18. What is the Flood Control Revolving Fund? _____
19. Is the National Flood Insurance Program a Federal Program or a State Program? _____
20. What year did the Natural Resources Commission adopt its "Outstanding Rivers List for Indiana? _____
21. What is a Conservancy District? _____
22. What year did the Indiana General Assembly enact Senate Bill 369? _____
23. How many ground-water categories are in Indiana? _____
24. What is the difference between a "sand and gravel aquifer" and a "bedrock aquifer"? _____
25. What is an approved Flood Control Program? _____

