Serve Indiana

Serve Indiana provides volunteers the opportunity to meet critical needs in their communities. Participants choose from activities like mentoring and tutoring youth, building affordable housing or park trails and teaching financial literacy or job readiness skills. Serve Indiana is a network of more than 1,300 Hoosiers volunteering at over 350 community organizations, public agencies and educational institutions throughout Indiana. For information go to in.gov/serveindiana.

Veteran Services

Indiana is committed to providing quality employment services to veterans at our WorkOne Centers. Veterans go to the front of the line and each office has an onsite veteran's representative that assists with employment needs. Services provided to veterans include: direct job referrals, resume development, training and grant assistance and interview coaching. Speak to a veteran's representative at your local WorkOne or visit in.gov/dwd/2424.htm for more information.

Virtual Career Counselor

Considering a new career? This interactive tool allows Hoosiers to estimate how long it takes to transition into another occupation based on your previous education and work experience. Transition time is measured in weeks of academic, technical or vocational training to provide an estimate of moving from one job to another. Check out and see how much time it would take you to switch your career at hoosierdata.in.gov/vcc.
