

August 13, 2009

MARSHALL "MAJOR" TAYLOR

INDIANA STATE HISTORICAL MARKER DEDICATION

Noon at the Intersection of 38th
Street and the Monon Trail, just south of the State Fairgrounds

Celebrate the life and accomplishments of
Hoosier cycling champion,
Marshall "Major" Taylor.

Born and raised in Indianapolis, Taylor
broke world records and won national and international championships during his illustrious career (1896-1910).

The Indiana Historical Bureau, Indiana State Fair Commission, and Central Indiana Bicycle Association Foundation will unveil the Indiana Historical Marker honoring Taylor at the former location of the Capital City Track, where Taylor set one of his first records.

Questions? Contact the Indiana Historical Bureau at 317 232-2537.

