

Indiana Women and the Civil War

A Fourth-Grade Lesson Plan

Prepared by the Indiana Historical Bureau

January 23, 2007

GROUP 5

Poem: Read each line of the poem listed below and then write in the space provided

(Interpretation) what you think the author is saying in the following lines.

And they keep at home the precious gold,
For their hearts for ribbons may not be sold.
They deck their hair with the wilding rose,
And for brooches fair truth in each bosom glows;

Interpretation:

Indiana Women and the Civil War

A Fourth-Grade Lesson Plan

Prepared by the Indiana Historical Bureau

January 23, 2007

Using this picture, answer the questions below:

What is going on in this picture?

Who is depicted in this image? What are they doing?

What do you think is going through the minds of the individuals represented in this image?

What does your group find most interesting about this image?

Who is not represented in this image that maybe should be? Why? [Think back to the lecture and discussion]