

Carol Sissom will be signing copies of her book, Banking with Dillinger, on Thursday, December 10 from 3:30pm - 5:30pm at the Indiana Historical Bureau bookshop in the Indiana State Library. All books will be 20-40% off during this event and visitors will have access to the free exhibit “Dillinger! Forging a Hoosier Legend.”

In Banking with Dillinger, Sissom visits with relatives of the notorious bank robber to create an account of Dillinger’s sometimes contradicting roles as public enemy number one and as “a fugitive with a good heart.”

Visitors may use the entrance at 315 West Ohio Street. Call the Indiana Historical Bureau at (317) 232-2535 for more information.
