DISABILITY LAW FOR DUMMIES

The ADA and Employment - A Historical Perspective

Historical perspective of the ADA, the reforms under the ADAAA, and application to employment.

The ADA and Public Accommodation - Past, Present and Future

The Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C §§ 12101, et seq., was enacted 25 years ago, with the goal of ensuring on a national level “equality of opportunity, full participation, independent living and economic self-sufficiency” for disabled individuals. This session will address the accessibility requirements of Title II regarding public services and Title III regarding public accommodations of the Act, enforcement and liability provisions, as well as new amendments, and trending issues regarding the Act.

Hate Crimes and Disability

Hate crime protection relating to disability bias under the Shepard-Bryd Hate Crime Prevention Act and the Fair Housing Act.
