

Older Women Struggle to Make Ends Meet

Author Shaila Dewan writes, “The US is aging, and a new report from WOW sheds some light on what that may mean and underscores the importance of saving for retirement. Sixty percent of women in the US who are 65 or older do not have enough income to cover basic expenses without help, even if they are married.”

Elder Action Guide

To support older American’s with their advocacy efforts, WOW is pleased to announce the release of our newest resource from the Elder Economic Security Initiative--the Elder Action Guide. The action guide provides the resources and strategies needed to incite political action through step-by-step instructions for multiple types of advocacy.
