

SAVE THE DATE

STATEHOOD DAY 2014

The 198th birthday of Indiana will be celebrated on Statehood Day, Thursday, December 11. Festivities will be held at the State House, the State Museum, the State Library and the Historical Society. Each program will feature one of the four winners of the 4th grade essay contest titled,

“Hoosier Bicentennial Moments”

For more information about entering the essay contest visit, in.gov/library/statehood.htm. If you are interested in bringing a 4th grade group to join a program held on December 11th, contact one of the following;

State House

Jennifer Hodge, Capitol Tour Office

317-233-9830

jhodge@idoa.in.gov

State Museum

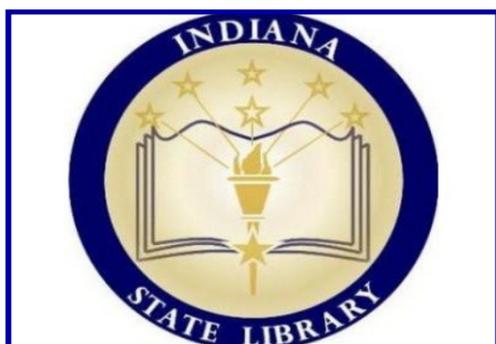

Joanna Hahn, Manager of School Programs

317-232-8293

jhahn@indianamuseum.org

To register:

Contact the Indiana State Museum Call center at 317-232-1637.

State Library

Suzanne Walker, Children's Library

317-234-5649

suwalker@library.in.gov

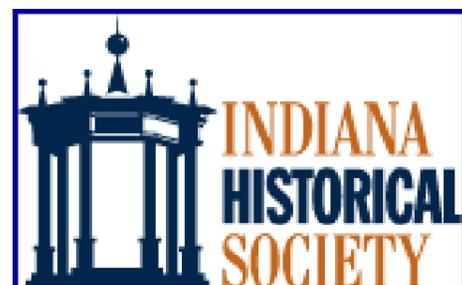

Historical Society

Katie Keesling, Education and Community Involvement

317-234-0085

kkeesling@indianahistory.org

Or, www.indianahistory.org

Space for programs will be limited and reservations required !

Historical Society

Space is limited and reservations must be made.