

NORTHWEST

INDIANA

Business Conference

Educational workshops, resources and plenary sessions will provide tools for minority-, women- and veteran-owned business success at the Northwest Indiana Business Conference.

Experienced presenters will discuss financing and bonding, upcoming business opportunities across the state and social media marketing. In addition, a business networking showcase will feature state certified minority, women and veteran business enterprises from Northwest Indiana.

Attendees will grow their business relationships from good to great through networking and informational seminars throughout the day.

RSVP at <http://goo.gl/ROkUY9>. Space is limited so RSVP by Monday, July 28. If you have questions related to the business conference, please contact Nate Lofton at nlofton@idoa.in.gov.
