

1) Do I email the bid to you at this email address?

Please refer to General Information section of the bid package for instructions on where to deliver your bid package.

2) Instructions say to email the bid and send 1 copy on CD or flashdrive and one hard copy. Where do those get mailed to? Sorry if I have overlooked an address.

Please refer to General Information section of the bid package for instructions on where to deliver your bid package.

3) I am not able to bid all items on two of the pages. Is this ok or do I need to bid all or none.

The State intends to award by section. However, the State may award by line item, category, or entire bid.

4) I do have one question – I see that it says “The State reserves the right to award by line item, category, or entire bid, whichever is in the best interest of the State” but does a company need to bid on all items to be considered in this process?

The State intends to award by section. However, the State may award by line item, category, or entire bid.
