1	I'm good	5/26/2015 8:17 AM
2	Would of loved to heard more from the locate side, felt it was geared too much to the contractor, might have a contractor only siminar and a locator and utility siminar only in the future .	5/22/2015 9:39 PM
3	n/w	5/22/2015 8:26 AM
4	When the utility companies are going have specs that they have to meet.	5/19/2015 5:36 PM
5	no.	5/15/2015 9:02 AM
6	Nothing stands out.	5/14/2015 9:24 AM
7	More information on updates that are coming in the future	5/14/2015 9:16 AM
8	No, I had questions but felt this really was not the place or time and what few questions were ask I did not feel we we getting complete answers.	5/14/2015 6:16 AM
9	More specifics on how the fines / penalties work - is there a print out I can share with my crews? Are there any resources for training my new hires in the company - a small video or workbook or online class I can have them complete about IN state law and safe digging? I expected to hear more about what to do if you hit a line - do we evacuate homes or not, some general stuff like that. Why can't gas co provide depth ranges - tell me if this line could possibly be less than 12" as warning.	5/13/2015 2:16 PM

1	I liked the attendee/participant exchanges	5/26/2015 8:17 AM
2	Would like to see a certificate awarded to all that attend	5/22/2015 9:39 PM
3	Reach out and invite more utilities and municipalities! These are the people I feel that need to hear about the laws of Indiana 811!!!	5/22/2015 8:26 AM
4	more of them.	5/15/2015 9:02 AM
5	I feel the training was very Informative and it would be ideal for more utilities, contractors, and the general public to attend. Thank you for the opportunity.	5/14/2015 9:24 AM
6	All in all I found it Usefull	5/14/2015 6:16 AM
7	Some techniques that would be helpful for training on hand digging to locate lines i.e. do not probe & dig parallel to lines , etc.	5/13/2015 10:17 PM
8	Provide handout of slides. Book with the law, penalty schedule, or even more information on those damage chapters - is there a website or flyer with details on when / where they meet? I could not write it down quick enough.	5/13/2015 2:16 PM
9	Structure engagement activities and perhaps an open microphone for stories, and exchanges. There will be some complaining no doubt but there may also be good learning especially from "outliers" who are otherwise isolated.	5/13/2015 11:28 AM
10	Allow more Q&A Time...specific to each IURC's area	5/13/2015 10:13 AM
11	Consider having penalties/damages prorated based on number of tickets called in.	5/13/2015 10:07 AM
12	More of them, I believe more people educated on the dos and don'ts will reduce damage and decrease injury. I sincerely thank you for the learning opportunity I really enjoyed it and being new to the state found it very beneficial to our day to day operation. Thank You	5/13/2015 9:13 AM
