

Cost Assumptions, Conditions, and Constraints

Michael Baker International assumes the State of Indiana requires five State users.

Michael Baker International assumes the State of Indiana requires up-to 120 local users.

Michael Baker International assumes training can be completed in 17 virtual instructor led training sessions.

Michael Baker International assumes all data is available and will be provided by the State and local users.

Michael Baker International assumes data creation is not included within the scope of services.

Michael Baker International assumes anomaly resolution and data maintenance is not included within the scope of services.

Michael Baker International assumes local users can submit data a total of two times, during initial onboarding, for schema compliance.

Michael Baker International assumes the State of Indiana accepts the terms and conditions outlined in our SaaS agreement.

Michael Baker International notes that any changes to base schema, Post Go-Live could impact validation results.

Michael Baker International assumes data will be provided in acceptable file types outlined in our technical response. Alternative file types may require translation and would be subject to additional cost.

Michael Baker International assumes all work will be performed during normal business hours and performed remotely. On-site or travel to remote sites are subject to an additional cost